The 2010 European Hotel Design Awards shortlist has been announced, click here to book your table now and network with those at the very forefront of the industry.

For further details of the shortlisted entries and images of the projects visit www.thesleepevent.com.

All the winning projects will be displayed at The Sleep Event Exhibition, 24-25 November, Business Design Centre London. Click here to register free now.

Running alongside the exhibition will be The Sleep Event Conference. NEW for 2010, this year's conference will focus on specific hotel projects, each representing different sectors of the hotel industry including luxury, budget and boutique.

These project panels will have representation from a range of disciplines which may include the project designer, architect, developer, investor, owner or operator, an invaluable opportunity to hear from all those at the centre of the global hotel industry.

Projects panel sessions include;

Reinstating and reinventing an icon - The Savoy, London
Resort Couture - Vidago Palace, Portugal
Sustainable Luxury Redefined- Costa Navarino, Greece
Designing to a different tune - Tune Hotels London
Squaring the design circle- The Squire / Hilton & Hilton
Beyond Boutique- Swire Properties new boutique brand
Breaking with convention - the new breed of conference hotel - Radisson Blu Waterfront Stockholm

Correct as of the 04/08/2010.

All this as well as keynote presentations and the returning Rapid Eye Movement, you can't afford to miss Europe's leading conference. For more information please visit www.thesleepevent.com or to book your place and benefit from the early bird discounted price (saving £100), please follow this link.
